

EmployAbility

2009 Employment Events

Nevada Disability Employment Education Project

Presents

September 25, 2009—EmployAbility Fair, Great Basin College, Elko, NV

9:00 am —3:00 pm. Employers, disability service providers and educators will be on hand to provide information and answer questions for job seekers with disabilities. Job seekers with disabilities can also attend career readiness workshops taught by local employers, self advocacy and benefits planning training.

October 8, 2009—A New Vision in the Workplace, Panos Hall, Las Vegas, NV

9:00 am-3:30 pm. An educational event for job seekers with visual impairments and prospective employers. Event features speakers, work readiness workshops, mock interviews, vendor, service provider and employer exhibit space, networking and refreshments. Educational workshops for employers on ADA and Assistive Technology.

October 13-14, 2009—Discover Your Future, University of Nevada Reno, Joe

Crowley Student Union, 9:00 am—3:00 pm. A two-day career exploration event open to all Washoe County School District transition age youth 14-22. Business professionals representing a wide variety of industries will be present to offer career information and guidance to attendees. Also includes job readiness workshops presented by employers, self advocacy and benefits planning training. Keynote speaker sponsored by the Disability Awareness Coalition and University of Nevada Reno, Disability Resources office to be announced.

November 5, 2009—EmployAbility Fair, Laughlin Library, Laughlin, NV

9:30 am—3:00 pm. Employers, disability service providers and educators will be on hand to provide information and answer questions for job seekers with disabilities. Job seekers with disabilities can also attend career readiness workshops taught by local employers, self advocacy and benefits planning training.

EmployAbility Fair, Ely NV—TBD

For questions or information please contact:

Cheryl Katzmark

775-333-7878 or Cheryl@ndalc.org.

These events are supported by the Division of Health Care Financing through Grant Number IQACMS030324/01 from Medicare & Medicaid Services \(CMS\) and in collaboration with the Nevada Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Divi-